WELCOME and THANKS

We extend a warm welcome to everyone at Church this morning when the service is being led by our young people with the theme of 'What does Sunday School mean to us?'. As a congregation we take the opportunity to express our sincere thanks to Emma Bell and her team of Sunday School teachers not only for their work in preparing for today's service but for all their dedication throughout the year. We are also much grateful to Mr Derek Patterson who is playing organ and piano for us today.
